

LEFOKASTRO

43 km southwards from Volos and just about 2 km from the picturesque village of Argalasti, lies the beaches of Lefokastro. In order to get there you take a 5km long rural road through olive groves and flocks of sheep enjoying the green landscape all the way down to the sea. The drowsy fishing village with its small houses by the sea is discovered mostly only by insiders because of its rural road. Hospitable fishermen impress the cosy and quiet atmosphere with few tavernas and shops - a paradise for visitors looking for relaxed holidays far away from everyday troubles. Beside the beach of the village there are some small bays which you can reach after 30 minutes of walking. Also by walking, you can reach the village of Afissos as well.

KALAMOS

As you leave behind the village of Argalasti, after 7 km southward you reach the small village of Kalamos, right by the sea. The village and the surroundings are an ideal domicile for relaxing holidays for adults and children as well - a wide, adventurous and partly shady region due to its areas that are all covered with trees, full of peace and quiet, cornered small beaches at the clear, blue sea that are waiting for you. Hidden restaurants in romantic surroundings invite you for a culinary stroll and as you make your way through the village, you pass by the old manor-houses which are embedded in wide gardens or olive groves. The village has just a few small tavernas and shops. For everything else you have to go to Argalasti.

HORTO

Embedded into the green landscape of Pilon with plenty of silver-shining olive groves the village Horto is situated directly on the gulf of Pagasiticos, 46 km south of Volos. The attractive settlement with its small port, two beaches and beautiful rocky and sandy bays in the neighbourhood invites you for a relaxing vacation and is also an ideal starting-point for discovering Pelion.

Going for a walk you run into the old monastery built on the nearby hill, where you can admire the old paintings on the walls and sense a unique feeling of relief. In the village you'll find several tavernas, cafes and super markets. More shops and intertainment you will find in Milina (3km).

MILINA

Nearly at the end of the Pelion peninsula you reach the small fishing village of Milina. In the past a lot of wood-carvers used to work in this wooded region. Nowadays the idyllic atmosphere of the village attracts a lot of visitors to this southern region of Pelion that every year become even more. The gorgeous landscape full of olive groves goes on along the seashore with long beaches, which are parallel to the coastal road. In the village you can find tavernas, cafes, shops and two small marinas. From there the visitors can go on an excursion to the islands of Alatas and Prassouda or to the Island of Trikeri which is even further away. If you take a zodiac with you or rent a boat you can go to small islands by yourself.

TRIKERI

Following the rural road from Milina to the south you reach after 31 km the mountain village Trikeri with small cornered alleys all painted white. Along the road you find several sandy bays which you can easily reach by car. In the village you get countless motives to take beautiful pictures - the turkoise and blue painted doors, all kinds of cute little shops and vividly colourfull flowers in front of the houses impress the picture of this village as well as the main church with its plastered square. At the main square with the shady plane-trees you enter a lively atmosphere created by the inhabitants that get together here.

Only 3km from the center you find the port of Trikeri - Agia Kiriaki. You can take hovercrafts from there to Volos and the island Old Trikeri - a nice, daily excursion.
